Plaintiffs allege that that Defendants Cargill and TAI manipulated the CBOT SRW wheat December 2017 futures contract ("CBOT December 2017 contract") and the CBOT SRW wheat March 2018 futures contract ("CBOT March 2018 contract") and options on the CBOT March 2018 contract. Plaintiffs allege that Defendants manipulated these contracts (and options on the CBOT March 2018 contract) by registering 2,000 December 2017 SRW wheat shipping certificates for the purpose of influencing prices rather than because of any legitimate need to sell that quantity of wheat. Plaintiffs assert claims against Defendants under the Commodity Exchange Act, 7 U.S.C. § 1 et seq., the Sherman Antitrust Act, 15 U.S.C. §§ 1 and 2, et seq., and the common law regarding unjust enrichment.

Defendants deny that they did anything wrong and assert that Plaintiffs' claims have no merit. Among other things, Defendants assert that the registration of shipping certificates was economical, not for any improper purpose, and lawful.

Nonetheless, to avoid the uncertainty and risk of further litigation and the duration, expense, difficulties, and delays inherent in such litigation, Defendants have agreed to settle the claims in this lawsuit, and to individually pay $5 million each, or $10 million total, to eligible Settlement Class Members.

The Court has preliminarily approved the Settlement. The following table contains a summary of your rights and options regarding the Settlement. BASIC INFORMATION

1. What is a Class Action Lawsuit?

A class action is a lawsuit in which one or more representative plaintiffs (in this case, Plaintiffs) bring a lawsuit on behalf of themselves and other similarly situated persons (i.e., a class) who have similar claims against the defendants. The representative plaintiffs, the court, and counsel appointed to represent the class all have a responsibility to make sure that the interests of all class members are adequately represented.

Importantly, class members are NOT individually responsible for payment of attorneys’ fees or litigation expenses. In a class action, attorneys’ fees and litigation expenses are paid from the settlement fund (or the court-awarded judgment amount) and must be approved by the court. If there is no recovery on behalf of the class, the attorneys do not get paid.

When a representative plaintiff enters into a settlement with a defendant on behalf of a class, such as in the Settlement with Defendants, the court will require that the members of the class be given notice of the settlement and an opportunity to be heard with respect to the settlement. The court then conducts a hearing (called a Settlement Hearing) to determine, among other things, if the settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate.

2. Why Did I Get this Notice?

You received this Notice because you requested it or records indicate that you may be a Class Member. As a potential Class Member, you have a right to know about the proposed Settlement before the Court decides whether to approve the Settlement.

This Notice explains the Action, the Settlement, your legal rights, what benefits are available, who is eligible for them, and how you can apply to receive your portion of the benefits if you are eligible. The purpose of this Notice is also to inform you of the Settlement Hearing to be held by the Court to consider the fairness, reasonableness, and adequacy of the Settlement and Distribution Plan and to consider requests for awards of attorneys' fees, litigation expenses and costs, and any Service Awards for Plaintiffs from the Settlement Fund.

3. What are the Definitions Used in this Notice?

Unless otherwise indicated, this Notice incorporates by reference the definitions in the Stipulations and Agreements of Settlement (the "Stipulations"). The Stipulations and the Court's Preliminary Approval Order as to the Stipulations are posted on the Settlement Website. All capitalized terms used, but not defined, shall have the same meanings as in the Stipulations and the Court's Preliminary Approval Order.

4. What is this Action About?

This lawsuit alleges that TAI and Cargill operated multiple grain storage warehouses in Toledo, Ohio and collaborated to manipulate prices of soft red winter ("SRW") wheat futures and options contracts on the CBOT. Plaintiffs allege that Defendants sold SRW wheat to the major purchasers in October and November 2017 to suppress demand for physical SRW wheat. Plaintiffs further allege that on November 29, 2017, TAI registered for delivery 2,000 certificates of CBOT December 2017 SRW wheat for the purpose of influencing prices, rather than because of any legitimate need to sell that quantity of wheat. Specifically, Plaintiffs, who filed this lawsuit on behalf of themselves and the Class, allege that TAI registered 2,000 December 2017 SRW wheat shipping certificates to falsely signal to the market that it planned to sell wheat from the futures market using the CBOT delivery process in December 2017. The price of the CBOT December 2017 contract decreased, and the spread between the CBOT December 2017 contract and the CBOT March 2018 contract widened. Defendants subsequently repurchased the majority of the shipping certificates that TAI had delivered at the decreased prices.

Plaintiffs assert claims against Defendants under the Commodity Exchange Act, 7 U.S.C. § 1, et seq. ("CEA"), the Sherman Antitrust Act, 15 U.S.C. §§ 1 and 2, et seq. ("Sherman Act"), and the common law regarding unjust enrichment.

Defendants deny that they did anything wrong and assert that Plaintiffs' claims have no merit. Among other things, Defendants assert that the registration of shipping certificates was economical, not for any improper purpose, and lawful.

Nevertheless, to settle the claims in this lawsuit, and thereby avoid the distraction and cost of further litigation, Defendants have agreed to pay $5 million each ($10 million total) (the "Settlement Fund") in cash for the benefit of the proposed Settlement Class. If the Settlement is approved, the Settlement Fund, plus interest earned from the date it was established, less any Taxes, the reasonable costs of Class Notice and claims administration, any Court-awarded attorneys' fees, litigation expenses and costs, Service Awards for Plaintiffs, and any other costs or fees approved by the Court (the "Net Settlement Fund") will be divided among all Class Members who file timely and valid Claim Forms.

If the Settlement is approved, the Action will be fully resolved. If the Settlement is not approved, Plaintiffs will continue to pursue their claims against Cargill and TAI.

5. What is the History of this Action?

The Plaintiffs initially filed this lawsuit on July 10, 2020. On September 14, 2020, TAI filed a motion to have the case transferred to the Northern District of Ohio ("MTT"). Plaintiffs filed an amended complaint on October 9, 2020 (the "FAC"). On December 23, 2020, Defendants moved to dismiss the FAC, arguing that Plaintiffs failed to adequately state their claims. On July 9, 2021, the Court issued a Memorandum Opinion and Order (the "July 9 Order") that denied Defendants' motion to dismiss Plaintiffs' CEA claims and granted Defendants' motion to dismiss Plaintiffs' Sherman Act claims and common law unjust enrichment claims. In the July 9 Order, the Court denied Defendants' MTT and granted Plaintiff leave to refile a second amended complaint, which Plaintiffs filed on August 9, 2021 (the "SAC"). On August 30, 2021, Defendants filed a motion to dismiss Plaintiffs' Sherman Act claims alleged in the SAC, arguing that Plaintiffs failed to allege essential elements for the claims. On May 3, 2022, the Court issued a Memorandum Opinion and Order (the "May 3 Order") that denied Defendants' motion to dismiss Plaintiffs' Sherman Act claims alleged in the SAC. On June 15, 2022, Defendants filed answers to Plaintiffs' SAC. On February 9, 2023, Plaintiffs filed a third amended complaint (the "TAC") to add Plaintiff Michael Glass. Defendants filed answers to Plaintiffs' TAC on March 10, 2023. Discovery began in January 2022, with fact discovery completing in September 2024.

On March 27, 2024, Plaintiffs moved to certify this lawsuit as a class action pursuant to Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and Defendants moved to exclude the testimony of Plaintiffs' class certification expert. On October 7, 2024, the Court issued an order that largely denied Defendants' motion to exclude ("October 7 Order"). Defendants filed an objection to the October 7 Order, which the Court denied on December 17, 2024, finding that the opinions of Plaintiffs' expert related to the requirements for class certification, classwide injury, and damages were sufficiently reliable and, therefore, the Court's October 7 Order was not clear error. On May 7, 2025, the Court granted Plaintiffs' motion and certified the Class. On June 16, 2025, the Seventh Circuit Court of Appeals denied Defendants' appeal of the certification order under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(f), and on July 16, 2025, the Seventh Circuit denied Defendants' petition for rehearing en banc.

While the litigation was ongoing and following the Court's class certification decision, Class Counsel and Cargill's Counsel negotiated the basic terms of the settlement and executed a binding term sheet. Plaintiffs filed a notice of settlement on November 26, 2025 and continued to litigate against TAI. While continuing to negotiate the settlement with Cargill, Class Counsel and TAI's Counsel agreed to a settlement amount, informed the Court on April 1, 2026, and negotiated a binding term sheet. The Stipulations were finalized and executed on May 27, 2026.

On May 28, 2026, Plaintiffs moved for preliminary approval of the Settlement, which was granted on July 14, 2026.

6. Why is there a Settlement?

Plaintiffs and Class Counsel believe that Class Members have been damaged by Cargill's and TAI's conduct. Defendants deny the allegations made by Plaintiffs and believe that they have meritorious defenses to Plaintiffs' allegations such that Plaintiffs' claims would have been rejected prior to trial, at trial, or on appeal. As a result, Defendants believe Plaintiffs would have received nothing if the litigation had continued to trial.

The Court has not decided in favor of either Plaintiffs or Defendants. Instead, Plaintiffs reached settlement of the Action. The Settlement allows the Parties to avoid the risks and costs of lengthy litigation and the uncertainty of pre-trial proceedings, a trial, and appeals. If the Settlement is approved, eligible Class Members who file timely and valid Claim Forms will receive some compensation, rather than risk ultimately receiving nothing. Accordingly, Plaintiffs and Class Counsel believe the Settlement is in the best interest of all Class Members.

Each Defendant has agreed to pay $5 million for a total of $10 million (the "Settlement Fund") in cash for the benefit of the proposed Settlement Class. If the Settlement is approved, the Net Settlement Fund will be divided among all Class Members who file valid Claim Forms.

If the Settlement is approved, the Action will be fully resolved. If the Settlement is not approved, Plaintiffs will continue to pursue their claims against Cargill and TAI.

WHO GETS MONEY FROM THE SETTLEMENT

7. How Do I Know if I am a Class Member?

In the Preliminary Approval Order, the Court preliminarily approved the following Settlement Class:

All persons or entities who purchased—(a) a long position in Chicago Board of Trade ("CBOT") soft red winter ("SRW") wheat December 2017 or March 2018 futures contracts; (b) a long position in CBOT call options on CBOT soft red winter wheat March 2018 futures contracts; or (c) a short position in CBOT put options on CBOT soft red winter wheat March 2018 futures contracts—and subsequently liquidated the position through an offsetting market transaction at any point during the period of November 30 through December 14, 2017, inclusive (the “Class Period”), except that sales of CBOT March 2018 futures contracts made after December 14, 2017 qualify for inclusion in the Class only to the extent they were made in liquidation of a long position in the CBOT March 2018 contract which was initiated prior to December 14, 2017. Excluded from the Settlement Class are: Defendants and their direct or indirect parents, subsidiaries, affiliates, divisions, officers, directors, employees, and agents, whether or not named as a Defendant; the United States government; and any judicial officer presiding over this Action and the members of his or her immediate family and judicial staff. Also excluded from the Settlement Class is any Person or entity who or which (i) submitted a timely and valid request for exclusion as directed in the notice of the Court’s May 7, 2025 certification of the litigation Class in this Action or (ii) properly excludes himself, herself, or itself by filing a valid and timely request for exclusion in accordance with the requirements set forth in the Class Notice approved by the Court, to the extent the Court provides an exclusion option, and who is excluded from the Settlement Class by order of the Court.

Not everyone who fits this description will be a Class Member. Please see question 8 for a discussion of exclusions from the Settlement Class.

8. Are there Exceptions to Being Included in the Settlement Class?

Yes. You are not included in the Settlement Class if you are a Defendant or any direct or indirect parent, subsidiary, affiliate, division, officer, director, employee, and agent of any Defendant, whether or not named as a Defendant. In addition, the United States government, the judicial officer presiding over this Action, and the members of his or her immediate family and judicial staff are excluded from the Settlement Class. Finally, any Person or entity who or which submitted a timely and valid request for exclusion as directed in the notice of the Court’s May 7, 2025 certification of the litigation Class in this Action will not be a member of the Settlement Class.

9. Can I Still Exclude Myself?

No. The option to exclude yourself has passed. If you did not exclude yourself from the certification of the litigation Class previously, you are a Class Member and cannot ask to be excluded now.

10. I’m Still Not Sure if I am Included.

12. How Will I Get a Payment?

If you are a Class Member and have not excluded yourself, you are eligible to file a Claim Form to receive your share of money from the Net Settlement Fund. Claim Forms must be submitted online at the Settlement Website on or before 11:59 p.m. Central time on December 14, 2026 OR postmarked by December 14, 2026 and mailed to:

Class Members who intend to attend the Settlement Hearing should check the Settlement Website to confirm the date of the Settlement Hearing, which is subject to change by the Court. If the Court approves the Settlement and Distribution Plan, there may be appeals after that. It can sometimes take a year or more for the appellate process to conclude. If any disputes cannot be resolved, you may present any disputes to the Court at the time Class Counsel seeks Court approval to distribute the Net Settlement Fund, and the Court will make a final determination of the validity of your Claim Form.

Please keep all data and documentation related to your eligible CBOT Wheat Futures or Options. Having data and documentation may be important to substantiating your Claim Form.

17. What Am I Giving Up to Receive a Payment?

Unless you have validly excluded yourself, you remain a Class Member. That means you cannot sue, continue to sue, or be part of any other lawsuit against Defendants or the Released Parties, or any other Person, based on the facts, conduct, or events, during the Class Period, underlying this Action. Upon the Effective Date of the Settlement, Plaintiffs and each of the Releasing Parties shall release and be deemed to release and forever discharge and shall be forever enjoined from prosecuting the Settled Claims against the Released Parties. All Releasing Parties covenant and agree that they shall not hereafter seek to establish liability against any Released Party or any other Person based on the facts, conduct, or events, during the Class Period, underlying this Action. The Settled Claims include, but are not limited to, any alleged damage, loss, or harm arising from or relating in any way—directly or indirectly—to Defendants' alleged manipulation of CBOT Wheat Futures or Options prices. The Parties intend that this term be interpreted broadly. For the avoidance of doubt, Settled Claims shall not include: (i) any claims relating to the enforcement of the Settlement and (ii) any claims of any Person or entity that submitted a timely and valid request for exclusion as directed in the notice of the Court's May 7, 2025 certification of the litigation Class in this Action or that submits a request for exclusion from the Settlement Class, to the extent exclusion is available, in connection with the Class Notice and whose request is accepted by the Court.

18. What If I Do Nothing?

You are automatically a Settlement Class Member if you fit the Settlement Class description. However, if you do not submit a timely and valid Claim Form, you will not receive any payment from the Net Settlement Fund. You will be bound by past and any future Court rulings, including rulings on the Settlement and releases. Unless you have validly excluded yourself, you will not be able to start a lawsuit, continue with a lawsuit, or be a part of any other lawsuit against Defendants or any of the other Released Parties on the basis of the Settled Claims. Please see question 17 for a description of the Settled Claims.

OBJECTING TO THE SETTLEMENT

19. How Do I Tell the Court What I Think About the Settlement?

If you are a Class Member and you have not validly excluded yourself, you can tell the Court what you think about the Settlement. You can object to all or any part of the Settlement, Distribution Plan, and/or application for attorneys' fees, reimbursement of litigation expenses and costs, and any Service Awards for Plaintiffs. You can give reasons why you think the Court should approve them or not. The Court will consider your views. If you want to make an objection, you may enter an appearance in the Action, at your own expense, individually or through counsel of your own choice, by filing with the Clerk of United States District Court for the Northern District of Illinois circumstances, be required to make themselves available to be deposed within seven (7) days of service of the objector's timely written objection.

If you do not timely and validly submit your objection, your views will not be considered by the Court. Check the Settlement Website, www.2017CBOTWheatFuturesClassAction.com for updates on important dates and deadlines relating to the Settlement.

20. What is the Difference Between Objecting and Excluding Myself?

Objecting is telling the Court that you do not like something about the Settlement. You can object to the Settlement only if you remain a Class Member and did not previously exclude yourself from the litigation Class. If you have validly excluded yourself, you have no right to object to the Settlement because it no longer affects you.
